A general good time is reported by' those who attended the session.

A Narrow Escape.

David Cain, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cain, had a narrow escape from death last Sunday. The little fellow, who is a little more than a year old, was playing in a room in the second story of the Cain residence when in some manner he unhooked the screen and fell $18657.58 out the window. The distance is about twenty feet and under ordinary circumstances the fall might have proved fatal, but it was the young man's lucky day and aside from a few minor bruises and a bad shaking up he suffered no injury.
